Abstracts in English are to be submitted electronically through the conference webpage <https://ceeconference.vse.cz/registration/> by ~~January 7, 2023~~ January 16, 2023, and their length is limited to 1000 symbols.

Full papers in English (after the approval of the submitted abstract) are to be submitted by ~~February 12, 2023~~ February 20, 2023, at the latest. The length of each paper must not exceed 15 pages (including figures and references). Each paper has to involve a chapter constituting an original empirical or analytical development that contributes to the current theoretical state of the science. Case studies are acceptable as well. Each participant can be the first author of only one paper.

The review process of each paper is double-blind, based on two reviews. Reviews will be sent to authors by March 27, 2023, at the latest.

The conference will be hosted by the Prague University of Economics and Business. The entire program of the conference will be transmitted online to enable active participation to all participants, even to those who might be, for some reason, not able to travel.

Conference proceedings will be sent for evaluation to Web of Science (CPCI database) and Scopus. The conference proceedings of 2015, 2016, and 2018 are indexed in the CPCI, and the ones of 2017, 2019, 2020, and 2021 are under review process. The most recent papers were submitted for indexation and are available here: 2022. The authors can decide about the publication of the full paper in conference proceedings or an abstract in the book of abstracts. Papers published as abstracts can be sent for publication to journals. The organizers' reviewed journals are CEBR, Economic Review, or Studia commercialia Bratislavensia.
